TOURISM-THE HOTEL INDUSTRY

Le Saint-Sulpice Hôtel ranked first in Montréal

Montréal, November 12, 2012 – Le Saint-Sulpice Hôtel Montréal finishes 2012 on a high note! This past spring it celebrated its 10th anniversary – along with launching its short film, La Valise – and this fall it was voted 1st hotel in Montréal in the 2012 Condé Nast Traveler - Readers' Choice Awards, among the 30 best establishments in Canada.

Since May of 2010, the administrative team has been breathing new life into Le Saint-Sulpice Hôtel. Its 108 suites have been completely renovated, a bar-lounge has been added in the lobby, and Sinclair restaurant was opened, with reputed Chef Stelio Perombelon at the helm.

In addition to the particular attentiveness placed on service and welcoming, the hotel's many improvements have also bumped it up to 12th place (from 24th in 2011) out of 166 Montréal hotels, according to Internet user rankings published on tripadvisor.com.

Rated 4 Stars, 4 Diamonds, Le Saint-Sulpice Hôtel Montréal is a boutique hotel known for the charm and authenticity of its 108 suites, most of which feature a fireplace or balcony. Situated right beside the lofty Notre-Dame Basilica, Le Saint-Sulpice Hôtel Montréal offers a unique experience in the heart of Old Montréal.
